THE BICYCLE SEASON.

have opened yesterday, for it was the first day of the opening at Stamp's Cyclery. Mr. Stamp conducts the only exclusive sporting and athletic goods establishment in Wheeling, and a cycle drummer in town yesterday, said that cities many times the size of Wheeling have not such a complete establishment. Throughout the day the store was crowded with visitors, and it can be seen readily that this season was the best ever experienced in Wheeling, but this year's prospects are even brighter. In the evening a mandolin club played and the crowd was even larger.

To-day the opening continues.
Of course the leading wheel at Stamp's is the Rambler. The Rambler at $80 has more value in it than the average $100 wheel, and is sure to remain the favorite wheel in Wheeling. This year's t comes in six models, with two tandem models. The tandems are listed at $152. A novel feature this season is the cushion saddle spring that is an option with purchasers.

Our I's and Other Eyes.

Our I's are just as strong as they were fifty years ago, when we have cause to use them. But we have less and less cause to praise ourselves, since others do the praising, and we are more than willing for you to see us through other eyes: This is how we look to S. F. Boyce, wholesale and retail druggist, Duluth, Minn, who after a quarter of a century of observation writes:

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than 25 years, both at wholesale and retail, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. I believe Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier, that has been introduced to the gen-eral public." This, from a man who has sold thousands of dozens of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is strong testimony. But it only echoes popular sentiment the world over, which has, "Nothing but words of praise for Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

The Featherstone line and several chesy wheels complete the most complete as-sortment of wheels shown in the state.

FIGHT AFTERMATIL

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.-In fashionable attire, with no external marks of pugilistic defeat, but debonair and smiling as if he had just won a great victory, James J. Corbett, exchampion, paraded the streets to-day and made his appearance is well-known resorts with a coterie of admiring friends. Of his plans for the future, Corbett said: "I won't make any move until Brady arrives. I see he is trying to get another match with Julian, but I hardly think they wil give me another championship. Fitzsimmons can call himself champion, and I suppose he is. But this does not annoy me. What I am after is another battle."

He showed them his disabled hands, which were swollen to twice their normal size. "That was all done in the sixth round," said he. "If they had not gone back on me I would have finished him in the seventh. That is why I had no steam."
